A Collection in English, of the Statutes nowe in force, continued from the beginning of Magna Charta, made in the 9. yeere of the reigne of King H. 3. vntill the ende of the Seſſion of Parliament holden in the 23. yeere of the Reigne of our gratious Queene Elizabeth, vnder Titles placed by order of Alphabet: wherein is performed (touching the Statutes wherewith Iuſtices of the peace haue to deale) ſo much as was promiſed in the booke of their office lately publiſhed. For which purpoſe alſo the Statutes concerning thoſe Iuſtices haue this marke ☞ at the beginning, and this marke * at the ende of them, noted in the margent ouer againſt the ſame.

Hereunto is added two Tables: the one at the beginning of the booke, declaring vnder titles by order of Alphabet the ſubſtance of ſuch referments as ſtoode at the end of eche Title in the firſt Collection of Statutes, ſet forth by Maſter Iuſtice Raſtall. And in this Table, the Title of Iuſtices of the peace is ſpecially peruſed and amended, for their more eaſie finding of matters in this booke, concerning their authoritie.

In the other Table (being at the ende of this booke) are ſet downe by order of the Kings reignes, the ſeuerall times of their Parliaments, together with the ſundry chapters and intitulings of the particular Statutes in euery of the ſame: whereby the Reader may eaſily finde vnder what Title, and in what leafe of this booke, any of theſe Statutes be placed: and may alſo (by helpe of certaine hands prefixed to diuers of them) readily ſee, what, and how many Statutes in eche Kings reigne, doe concerne the Iuſtices of peace, and in what leafe of this booke to finde them.

Imprinted at London by Chriſtopher Barker, Printer to the Queenes moſt excellent Maieſtie.

William Raſtall Sergeaunt at Lawe, to the gentle Reader.

HEre haue yee (gentle Readers) a Collection of the Statutes of Englande (from the beginning of Magna Charta, vnto this preſent time) which were before this yeere imprinted, and which be nowe in force and effect.

The printed Statutes, expired or repealed, or concerning priuate perſons, or ſome priuate places, I haue (for the moſt parte) left out of this woorke, ſauing that of them I haue made in their apt titles (as I thinke) a brieſe remembrance.

The reſidue of the Statutes imprinted, haue I put in this woorke (as I ſuppoſe) in their apt titles, worde for worde, as they be in the great Statutes: onely leauing out, as well certaine ſuperfluous woordes, as alſo the moſt part of the preambles, for that I feared, that if I ſhoulde haue put in all the preambles, this booke woulde haue growen ſo bigge and ſo thicke, that it woulde not haue bene conteined in this volume. Neuertheleſſe I haue (I truſt) put in thoſe preambles, without which the body of the Statutes cannot be well perceiued.

But yet truſt not, that all the Statutes that I haue put at large in this booke, do ſtand in force: for percaſe ſome of them be repealed by other Statutes made after, by ſpeciall or generall wordes, which for lacke of leaſure I coulde not throughly conſider. I haue noted in the Margent of euery Statute certaine woordes, and that for three cauſes.

The firſt, for that, that many of the Statutes be long, and contayne many ſeuerall matters, of which percaſe you woulde many times gladly, ſhortly finde out ſome one (without tedioufnes, or ſpending of the time in reading ouer the whole ſtatute) therefore by peruſing the wordes in the Margent, ye may quickely conceyue, what matters be in that ſtatute, whereby ye may readily finde out the matter that ye would reade of in that ſtatute.

The ſecond cauſe is, that the wordes in the Margent well conſidered, ſhall ſtand you in as good ſteede, as ſhould a ſpeciall Calender.

The third cauſe is, becauſe that many Statutes conteine diuers matters, that neceſſarily were to be put in diuers ſeuerall Titles apt for thoſe ſeuerall matters, and ſo ſhould diuers matters aptly be put in this booke twiſe or thriſe, or percaſe in moe places in their diuers apt Titles, were it not that then this booke woulde haue bene too bigge, therefore the wordes in the Margent, doe ſhortly ſhewe you thoſe ſeuerall matters apt for other Titles.

Note that the wordes in the different letter within the Parentheſes ( ) be not the wordes of the Statute, but my wordes planted in there, for the better vnderſtanding of the ſtatute.

And although I haue put the ſtatutes here at large, yet will I aduiſe euery ſuch of you, as ſhall haue any matter of importance, concerning any ſtatute in this booke, not to truſt altogether to this booke: But reade you ouer diligently the Acte with the Preamble thereof, in the great bookes of Statutes, out of which I tooke this. This aduiſe I giue you for two cauſes: The one, for that, that reading the Preamble with the Statute, it ſhall many times giue you much light for the true vnderſtanding of the Statute: where if ye reade the Statute in this booke without the Preamble, the vnderſtanding of the Statute may be to you oft time confuſed. The other cauſe is, for that, that perhaps diuers faults be eſcaped in this worke, ſome for lacke of diligence of the Printer, and ſome by my default, for lacke of leyſure to conſider, and aduiſedly to peruſe and ouerſee this worke after I had finiſhed it.

Note alſo that in the ende of euery referment of the two Tables, you ſhall finde the one of theſe foure letters, A. B. C. D: which do ſignifie, the firſt, ſecond, third, and fourth Columne of euery leafe. Vale.

A Table (in order of Alphabet) for the ready finding of the ſeuerall Titles conteined in this volume: whereunto are added the ſubſtance of ſuch referments as ſtande at the ende of eche Title in the Collections of the Statutes before this time publiſhed.

Borne ouer ſea.

2 ¶Becauſe that ſome people bee in doubt whether the children borne in the parts beyond the ſea out of the lyegeance of England, ſhould be able to demaunde any inheritaunce within the ſame liegeance or not, whereof a petition was put into the parliamẽt late holden at Weſtminſter, the xvij. yeare of the reygne of our ſoueraigne lord the king that nowe is, and was not at the ſame time wholy aſſented vnto: Our ſoueraigne Lorde the king, willing that all doubtes & ambiguities ſhould be taken away, and to declare, and put the lawe in certaine in this caſe, hath charged the Prelates, Earles, Barons, & other wiſe men of his counſell aſſembled in this parliament, to deliberate vpon this point: who of one aſſent haue ſaid, that the law of the crowne of England is, and alwaies hath bene ſuch, that the children of the kings of England (in whatſoeuer parties they ſhalbe borne, in England or els where) be able & ought to cary thinheritance after the death of their auncеſtors: which law our ſaid ſoueraign lord the king, the ſaid Prelates, Earles, Barons, and other great men, and all the commons aſſembled in this parliament, do approue and affirme for euer. And as concerning other childrẽ borne out of the liegeance of England, in the time of our ſoueraigne lorde the king, they be alſo of one minde accorded, that Henry ſonne of John de Beaumonde, Elizabeth daughter of Guy de Brian, and Giles ſonne of Raufe Dawbeney, and other which the king wil name, which were borne beyõd the ſea, out of the liegeance of Englande, ſhalbe from henceforth able to haue and enioy their inheritance after the death of their auncеſtours, in all parties within the ſame liegeance of England, as well as thoſe that be borne within ỹ ſame liegeance of England. And that al children inheritable, which from henceforth ſhalbe borne out of the liegeãce of ỹ king, whoſe fathers and mothers at the time of their birth be and ſhalbe at the faith and of the liegeance of the king of Englande, ſhall haue and enioy the ſame benefites and auauntages, to haue and beare inheritance within the ſame liegeance, as the other inheritours aforeſaid, in time to come, ſo alwaies that the mothers of ſuch children do paſſe the ſea by the licence and willes of their huſbands. ¶Approuements.

BEcause many great men of England (which haue infeffed knightes & their freeholders of small tenementes in their great manners) haue complayned, that they can not make their profit of the residue of their manners, as of their wastes woods, and pastures, whereas not withstanding the same feffees may haue sufficient pasture as much as appertaineth to their holde. Thus it is prouided & granted that when soeuer such feffees do bring an assise of nouel disseisin for their cõmon of pasture. And it is acknowledged before ỳ Justicers, ỳ they haue asmuch pasture as sufficeth for their hold, & that they haue free egresse & regresse frõ their holde vnto the pasture: then let them bee contented therewith, & they on whom they haue cõplained, shal go quit for that, ỳ they haue made their profite of their lands, waste, woodes, and pastures. And if they allege that they haue not sufficient pasture, or sufficient egresse & regresse according to their holde, then let the trueth be inquired by assise. 2 ¶ As in a statute made at Merton (before 1.) it was graunted, ỳ lordes of waste woods and pastures might improue the said waste woods & pastures, notwithstanding ỳ contradiction of the tenantes, so ỳ the tenants had sufficyent pasture to their hold, with frée egresse & regresse to ỳ same. And for as much as no mẽcõ was made betwéene neighbors, many lordes of waste woods & pastures haue bene troubled heretofore by the contradiction of neighbors hauing sufficient pasture. And for because foreine tenants haue no more right to cõmõ in the waste, woods, or pastures of any lord, then ỳ lordes owne tenants: It is ordeined, that the statute of Merton prouided betwéene the lord & his tenants, frõ henceforth shall holde place betwene lords of waste, woods & pastures & neighbours, saning sufficient pasture to their tenaunts and neighbors, so that the lords of such waste, woods & pastures may make improuement of the residue, & thys shalbe obserued for such as claime pasture as appurtenant to their hold, but if any do claime cõmon of pasture by special feffement or graunt, for a certaine number of beasts, or otherwise thẽ he ought to haue of common right, seing that the couenãt restrayneth the law, he shal haue such recouerie as he ought to haue by forme of the graunt made vnto him. By occasion of a windemille, berkary, necessarie deprie, inlarging of a court or courtilage, frõ henceforth no man shalbe greéued by assise of nouel disseisin of cõmon of pasture, and where some time it chanceth ỳ one hauing right to improue, doth leuy a dike or an hedge, and some by night, or at an other season when they suppose not to be espied, do ouerthrowe the hedge or dike, & it cannot be knowen by verdict of the assise or iurie, who did ouerthrowe ỳ hedge or dike, and men of the townes nere, will not indict such as be guiltie of the fact, the townes néere adioyning shalbe distrayned to rayse vp the hedge or dike agayne at their owne cost, & to yelde damages. And if it be founde, that the same exception was lawfully and truely alleaged, & that they that alleaged it, were iointly seised before the plaintife purchased his writ agaynst them, the assise shall passe no further, but the writ shalbe abated. The same shalbe obserued if both or one do appeare, if it be founde by assise that the exception was truly alleaged, as before is said: The same order shalbe obserued in assises of Mortdaunce ster, and writs of Iuris vtrum, that the first day that the parties appeare in court, if the tenant alleage the exception against the demaundant, shewing a dede there vpon, and the demaundant will offer to auerre by the assise or iurie, that the day of his writ purchased, hee that alleaged the exception was sole tenaunt, hereafter the same maner of proces shalbe vsed in assises of Mortdaunce stor, & writs of Iuris vtrum, as before is ordeined in assises of Nouel disseisin, and like punishment shalbee awarded to the offendours. But in other writts whereby landes are demaunded, such proces shalbee made at the first daye, that the parties appeare in court, if the tenaunt do alleadge the foresaid exception of a ioint feoffement, and the demaundant will offer to auerre by the countrey, that the day of the writte purchased, he that alleaged the exception, was sole tenant, then the same maner of proces shalbee obserued betwixt the parties, vntill a iurie haue passed betweene them thereupon. And if it be founden by ỳ iurie that the same exception was truely alleaged, then the writte of the demaundant shall abate. And if it be founden by the iury that ỳ same exception was falsely and maliciously alleaged, to the hinderãce of the partie, then the demaundaunt shall recouer his seisen of the lãds in demaũd, and the tenaunt shalbee punished by the paine aboue saide in a writ of Nouel disseisin, as to the imprisonment, & as to the damages according to the discretion of ỳ Iustices. Neither ſhal this act be ſo largely vnderſtanden that ſuch perſons, for whoſe remedy this ſtatut was ordeined, ſhal haue the recouerie aforeſaid, furmiſing the Gardeins of heires, tenaunts by ỹ curteſie, tenants in dower, for term of life, or for yeares, or huſbandes which faintly haue defended pleas moued by thẽ or againſt them, becauſe the iudgements gꝛeuen in the kings courts ſhould not bee annulled by this ſtatute, the iudgement ſhall ſtand in his force, vntil it be reuerſed in the court of the kinge, as erronious, if errour be found, or by aſſiſe of Darraine preſentment, or by enqueſt in Quare impedit, if it paſſed by attaint, or be annulled by certification, which ſhalbe freely grãted. And from henceforth one forme of pleading ſhalbe obſerued amongſt Iuſticers in writs of Darreine preſentment, & Quare impedit, ſo that where the defendant alleaged plenartie in the churche of his owne preſentation, the plea ſhall not fall by reaſon of the plenartie, ſo that the writ bee purchaſed within vi. monethes, though he cannot recouer his preſentation, vñin ỹ vi. monethes. And ſometimes where a fine is leuied betweene manye clayming one aduowſon, and inrolled before the Iuſticers in the rolle or fine, in this forme, that one ſhall preſent the firſt time, and at the next aduoidãce another, and the third time another, and ſo of many, in caſe there be many. And when one hath preſented for his turne, according to the fourme of their agrement, and fine, and at the next auoydaunce he to whom the ſecond preſentation belongeth, is diſturbed by any that was partie to the ſayd fine, or in his ſtede. It is prouided, that from henceforth hee that is ſo diſturbed, ſhall haue no neede to ſue a Quare impedit, but ſhall reſort to the rolle or fine. And if the ſaide concorde or agrement be found in the rolle or fine, then the ſherife ſhalbee commaunded, that he geue knowledge vnto the diſturbour, that hee be readie at ſome ſhort day, containynge the ſpace of xv. dayes, or three weekes (as the place happeneth to be neere or farre) for to ſhew if he can alleadge any thynge wherefore the partie that is diſturbed ought not to preſent. And if he come not or peraduenture doth come, and can nothinge alleage to barre the partie of hys preſentation, by reaſon of any dede made or written ſince the fine was made or inrolled, hee ſhall recouer his preſentation with hys damages. And where it chaunceth, that after the deathe of the anceſtor of him that preſented his clerk vnto a church, the ſame aduowſons is aſſigned in dower to any woman, or to tenant by the curteſy, which do preſent, and after the death of ſuch tenaunts, the verie heire is diſturbed to preſent, when the church is voide. It is prouided that from henceforth it ſhalbe in the election of the partie diſturbed, whether he will ſue a writ of Quare impedit, or of Darrein preſentment. The ſame ſhalbee obſerued in aduowſons dimiſed for terme of lyfe, or yeres or in fee taile. And from henceforth in writs of Quare impedit, and Darreine preſentment, damages ſhalbe awarded, that is to wite, if the time of ſix moneths paſſe, ſo that the biſhop do preſent and the very patrone leſeth his preſentation for ỹ time, damages ſhalbee awarded for two yeres value of the churche. And if the vi. monethes be not paſſed, and the preſentment be derained within the ſayd tyme, thẽ damages ſhalbe awarded to the halfe yeres value of the church. And if the diſtourbour haue not whereof he may recõpence dammages (in caſe where the biſhop preſenteth by laſe of time) he ſhalbe puniſhed by two yeres impriſonment. And if the aduowſon be deraigned within the halfe yere, yet the diſtourbour ſhal be puniſhed by the impriſonment of halfe a yere. And from henceforth writtes ſhal be graunted for chapels prebendes, vicarages, hoſpitals, abbaies, priories, and other houſes, which bee of the aduowſons of other men, that haue not ben vſed to be graunted before. And when the perſonne of any churche is diſtourbed to demaunde tithes in the next parithe by a writ of Indicauit, the patrone of the perſon ſo diſtourbed, ſhall haue a writte to demaunde the aduowſon of Tithes beinge in demaund, ¶Breakers of leagues & truce.

FOr asmuch as before this time diuers people, comprised within ỳ truce, made aswell by our soueraigne Lord the kinge, which now is, as by his noble father, and also diuers other people hauinge safeconditis, aswell of our soueraigne lorde the king that now is, as of his noble father haue beene, slaine, robbed, and spoyled, by the kings liege people and subiects, as well vppon the maine sea, as within the ports and coastes of the sea of Englande, Irelande, and of Wales, whereby the said truce & safeconduits haue ben broken and offended, to the great dishonor and slaunder of the kinge and against his dignitie. And the said manslears, robbers, spoilers, and offenders of the said truce & the kings safeconduits, as is afore declared, haue ben by diuers of the kings liege people & subiects within the coastes of diuers cõtries receiued, abbetted, procured, concealed, hyered, sustayned, & maintayned. Our soueraigne lord the king, by the aduise of and assent aforesaid, and at the prayer of the said commons, hath ordeyned & declared, that such manslaughter, robberie, spoyling, breaking of truce, and safeconduits, and voluntarie receit, abbettement, procurement, concealing, hyering, sustayning, & maintayning of such persons, to be done in time to come by any of the kings liege people and subiects within ỳ realme of Englande, Irelande, and Wales, or vpon the maine sea, shalbe adiudged and determined for high Treason done against the kings crowne & his dignitie. And in euery port of the sea be made and assigned from henceforth by the king, by his letters patents, one lawfull man called a Conseruatour of the truce, and the kinges safeconduits, which shall haue xl. pounde of land by yeare at the leaste. And that the said conseruator haue power and auctoritie by the said letters patents, and also by commission of the Admirall of Englande, to enquire of all such treasõs & offences to be done against the truce & ỳ kings safeconduits vppon the maine sea, out of the bodye of the Countie, and out of the fraunchises of the v. ports of the king, as the admirals of the kings of England before this time reasonably after the olde custome and law vpon the main sea vsed, haue done or vsed. And also ỳ the said conseruatour, haue like and the same power, to punish all them, which be or shalbe indicted or accused before him, as wel at the kings suit as at the parties, of any thinge to be done against the truce & the kynges safeconduits vpon the maine sea, out of ỳ bodye of the counties and libertes of the Realme of England, and out of the sayde fraunchise of the v. Ports, by such proces, examination, prooues, determination, iudgement, & execution, as ỳ admirals of the kinges of England before this tyme reasonably according to the old custome & law vpon the maine sea vsed, haue done or vsed: Except that the determination of the death of a man in this behalfe, & the execution of the same, shalbe alwayes reserued to the said Admirall, or to his generall lieutenant, out of the fraunchises of the said v. ports. And that the said conseruatour haue full power and auctoritie to enquire, aswell within the liberties and fraunchises as without, by men enhabitinge within the bodie of the countie and libertie where the said port is, of all such treasons and offences to be done against the truce, and the kinges safeconduits, with in the bodie of the countie and libertie where the saide port is, and to make against those persons before hym so endicted, such proces as here followeth, that is to saye, by Capias and exigend, whych shal as well go into the counties of which such men so endicted be supposed to be, as into the counties where such endictments be taken, which Capias and Exigend aforesaide, in both counties shalbe returned at one daye, and that the first Capias in both counties haue day of returns by a moneth at the leaste. 3 ¶ Albeit one acte of Parliament was made in the xvij. yere of the raigne of our late soueraigne lord of famous memorie kinge Henry the eight, entituled, An act concerning repairing and amending of Bridges in high wales (before 1) in which act amongst other things it is enacted, that if part of any decaied bridge, happen to bee in one shire, ridinge, citie, or Towne corporat, and the other part thereof in another shire, ryding, citie, or Towne corporate, or if part bee wythin any limittes of any citie or towne corporate and part wythout, or part wythin one ryding, and part within another, that then in euerie suche case the inhabytaunts of the shires, rydinges, cities, or townes corporate, shalbee charged and chargeable to amende, make, and repaire such part and portion of such Bridges so decayed, as shall lye and be within the limits of the shire, riding, or towne corporat, wherein they bee inhabited, at the time of the said decayes as by the sayde acte (amongst other thinges) more plainly doth and may appeare. Yet for that at the tyme of the makinge of the saide statute, the foresaid parishes of Tiddenham and towne of Chepstowe, were not as then vnited and annexed to the said counties of Gloucester and Monmouth, but sithence in the xxvij. yeare of the sayde late king Henry the eight, by force of one act, entituled, an act for lawes and iustice to bée ministred in Wales, in lyke forme as it is in this Realme, and now by reason of certaine wordes contayned in the saide last acte, as also by reason of great pouertie of the inhabytaunts of the foresaide Towne of Chepstowe, diuers questions and doubtes haue arysen how, and by what meanes the foresayde Bridge shalbe repaired, amended or newe made. For declaration and explanation whereof, and for remedie in the premisses. Be it enacted &c. that the shire or countie of Gloucester, and the shire or countie of Monmouth, shall stande for euermore chargeable for the maintenaunce, repairinge, amendinge, and newe makynge of the foresaide Bridge, when and as often as neede shall require, videlicet, euerie of them for such part and moitie as lyeth to the middel of the streame of the foresaide water of Wye, on the sides of the foresaide Lordshippes of Chepstowe and Tyddenham aforesayde, and that for the assessment, rating, collection, gathering, and imploying of the moneis thereupon to be spent, such forme and order shalbee obserued, as is appointed by the foresaide acte made in the xxvij. yeare of the sayde kinge Henry the eight.

¶ Church yarde.

FOr as much as we haue vnderstode very often, that contension hath rysen betwene persons of churches and theyr parishoners, touching trées that growe in the church yarde, both of them affyrminge that they belonge to them selues, we haue thought good to declare the doubt of such contencions by written lawe, rather then by lawe of statute. For where as the church yarde is a ground specially dedicated vnto the church, and what so euer is planted vppon the ground, belongeth to the ground, it followeth necessarily, that the trées them selues ought to be numbred amongest the church goodes, the disposing wherof is not gèeuen to lay men, but as the holy scripture witnesseth the care of disposing them vndiscussed of God, ought to be committed vnto priests onely, but those trées often times are planted to kèepe awaye the force of the wynde for hurting of the Churches, we will that the Parsons of Churches doe not presume to fel those trées vndiscretly, but only when ỳ Chauncell of the church doth want necessarie reparations, nor shall conuert them to any other vse by any meanes, vnlesse the body of the church

ANno 7.H.8.cap. 8. a long acte was made concernynge a certaine maner and forme for the reuenues and accõpts of dyuers of the kynges lands, authorising certaine persons to be surueiours of the same lands, reuenues and accompts, wyth dyuers articles concerninge those matters, to endure to the dissolutiõ of the next parliament. And Anno 14.H.8. the said act of 7.H.8. expired, and then in 14. H.8. There was an other acte made of much like effect as the former act ẏ was made An. 7.H.8.cap.8. which act made An.14 H.8. was made to ẽdure to thẽd of the next parliament, and after An.27. H.8.ca.27. a great acte was made for ẏ execution and authoritie of the court of Augmentations, and ẏ the Abbey lands should be in ẏ suruey of ẏ court. And An. 27.H.8.cap.28. the said acte made An. 14.H.8. was made perpetual with some other clauses adioyned. And after Anno 32.Hen.8.cap.45. the court of the first fruites and tenthes was erected, and by that acte, the officers appointed, and the cõposition for the first fruites should bee made by the officers of the court, and that the obligations taken therefore, shalbe of like force as statutes staple and lyke execution thereupon, and there be diuers articles for these matters & for the accõpts of these debts. And after Anno 33.H.8. cap.39. the said actes made Anno 14.H. 8. and An.27.H.8.capit.28. were made voyde and repelled. And by the act of 33. H.8.cap. 39. is made an erection of the court of general surueyours, of dyuers of the kynges lands, with authoritie to them, to make leases for yeres, and to take recognysaunce, & to make woodsale, and there be manye articles concerninge that court, and for the leuying and true payment of the reuennes of the lãds appointed to the court, and dyuers officers made and appointed for the court, and after in Anno 7.Ed.6.cap. 2. it appeareth that H.8. by his letters patentes had dissolued as well the sayd court of the Augmentations erected by parliament Anno 27.H.8.cap.27. as the said court of general surueyours of the kynges lands, erected by parliament 33.H.8.capit.39. And that after H. 8. by letters patentes erected a court called the court of Augmentations and reuenues of his crowne. And after An.7.Ed.6.cap.2. the saide letters patents were confirmed, and authoritie geuen to king E.6. during his life to alter, vnite or dissolue, by his letters patẽts the said last erected court, and also ẏ court of the first fruites and tenthes, the court of the kings wardes, and the court of the duchy of Lancaster, with dyuers articles concerning those matters, but Ed.6. died before any such alteratiõ, vniting, or dissolving. And after Queene Mary dyssolued the said courtes of the Augmentations & first fruits & tenthes, as appeareth in this title. 13.

IN caſe when ỳ huſband loſt by default a tenement that was the right of hys wife, it was a hard caſe, that the wife after the death of the huſbande had none other recouery but by a writ of right: wher fore our ſoueraigne lorde the kinge hath ordeined, that the woman after the death of her huſbande, ſhall recouer by a writte of Entre, called (Cui ipſa in vita ſua contradicere non potuit) which ſhal be pleaded in forme vnder written. If the tenāt do except againſt the demaunde of the wyfe, that hée entred by iudgement, and it be found, that his entre was by default, whereto the tenaunt of neceſſitie muſt make aunſwere if it bée demaunded of hym, then hée ſhalbée further compelled to ſhew his right accordyng to the forme of the writte that he had purchaſed before againſt the huſbande and the wife, And if hée can verify that hée hath or had right in the tenement demaunded, the woman ſhall get nothinge by her writ. But if hée cannot verifie it, the woman ſhall recouer the tenement in demaunde. This alſo being obſerued, that if the huſband abſented him ſelfe, and will not defend his wiues ryght, or will yelde vp the tenement againſt his wiues will, if the wife do come in before iudgement, readye to aunſwere to the demaundant, and to defend her right, the wife ſhalbee admitted thereunto, like wife if tenaunt in dower, tenaunt by the lawe of the land, or otherwiſe for terme of life, or by gift, where as the reuerſiō is reſerued, do make default, or will yelde vp the tenement: the heires, or they, to whom the reuerſiō belongeth, ſhall bée admitted to aunſwere, if they come in before iudgement. And if vppon default or reddition, iudgement happen to bée geuen: then the heires, or they vnto whom the reuerſion belongeth after the death of ſuche tenauntes, ſhall haue recouerye by a writ of Entre, in whych, lyke proceſſe ſhalbée obſerued, as is aforeſayde, in caſe where the huſband leeſeth hys wiues lande by default. 2 ¶In a writ of dower called (Vnde nihil habet) the writ shal not abate by the exception of ỳ tenant because she hath receiued her dower of an other man before her writ purchased, vnlesse he can shewe, that she hath receyued part of her dower of him selfe, & in the same towne, before ỳ writ purchased. W. 1. ca. 48. An. 3. E. 1.

3 ¶In case where the husband being impleded for land, geuing vp the land demaũded vnto his aduersary by couin: after ỳ death of ỳ husbãd, the Iusticers shal award ỳ wife of her dower, if she demãd it by writ. But in case where ỳ husbande leeseth it by default, the land being in demaund, & ỳ wife after ỳ death of her husband, demaundeth her dower, it hath ben seene that some Iusticers haue awarded vnto the woman her dower, notwithstãding the default which her husbãd made, other Iusticers being of ỳ contrary opinion, & iudging otherwise. To ỳ intent ỳ frõ henceforth such ãbiguitie shalbe take away & put in certaine: It is prouided, ỳ in both cases, ỳ woman demaunding her dower, shalbe heard. And if it be alleged against her, ỳ her husband lost the lande, whereof ỳ dower is demaunded by iugement, whereby she ought not to haue dower, & thẽ it bee enquired by what iudgement, and it be found ỳ it was by default whereunto ỳ tenant must aunswere: thẽ it behoueth him to aunswere further, and to shew that he had right, and hath in the forsaid land according to ỳ forme of the writ. that the tenant before purchased against ỳ husband. And if he can shewe, ỳ the husband of such wyfe had no right in the lands, nor none other but he ỳ tenant shal be quite, & ỳ wife shal recouer naught of her dower, which thinge if hee can not shew, ỳ wife shal recouer her dower. And so in these cases, & in certaine other following: ỳ is to say, when ỳ wife being indowed leeseth her dower by default, & tenants in free mariage, by ỳ law of England, or for terme of life, or in fee taile, diuers actions do cõcurre for such tenants, when they must demaund ỳ land lost by default: And when it is come to ỳ point ỳ the tenant must be compelled to shewe his right, for as much as the law will not compel them to make aunswere without them to whom the reuersion belongeth: therefore they are suffered to vouche to warrantie according to the tenour of the writ, as if they were tenants. And if they haue a warrãty, when ỳ warrãtour hath warranted, the plea shall passe betweene him ỳ is seysed & the warrantour, according to ỳ tenor of the writ that ỳ tenant purchased before, & by which he recouered by default, & so frõ many actions at length they shal resort to one iudgement, which is this, that either ỳ demaundãts shal recouer their demaund, or the tenants shal go quite. And if the action of such tenant, which is compelled to shew his right, bee moued by a writ of right, though that the great assise or battaile, can not be foigned by the wordes accustomed, yet it shalbee foigned by wordes conuenient and vsed, for when the tenant in that ỳ he sheweth his

Dying Hatts Capps

60 ¶ Where in the parliament holden at Westminster, in the fift & fire yere of the raigne of our late soueraign lord king Edward the first (before 52.) there was by great deliberation & aduise, one good act made for the true and perfect making of wollen cloth within this realme, sithence the making wherof, diuers clothiers found them selues agreeued, alleaging that it is vnpossible for them to obserue ẏ same act in al points, & haue in this present Parliament praied some mitigation therof: It is therof at their special instance & request ordered, established, enacted & prouided in maner & fourme following. In primis ẏ euery white clothe & clothes, commonly called long Worcesters, & all like cloth of like making, mencioned in the saide acte which by the same was limitted to weigh lxxiiij. pounds, being well scoured, thicked, milled, & fully dried, shal weigh lxxv. pounds at the least. Item euery whyte cloth which shalbe made in the countyes of Wiltes. Gloucester, & Somerset, or any of them, or els where of like making, being appointed by the said act to weygh lxiij. pounds, shal weigh being wel scoured, thicked, milled, & fully dried lxi. pounds at the least. Item euery broad cloth made in the shires of Kent & Suller, or at the towne of Redding, or any of them, or els were of like making, mencioned in ẏ sayd acte, which by the same was limitted to weigh lxxx. pounds at the least, shal weigh being wel scoured, thicked, milled, & fully dried lxxvi. pounds at the least. Item that euery course short cloth made in ẏ shires of Suff. Norf. & Eller, or any of them, or els were of like sort, & euery course clothe to be made within the shire of Kent, not exceeding the price of vi. li. al which by the said act are appointed to conteine vij. quarters of a yarde at the least in breedth, shall conteine & be at the water, being thorough wet fire quarters & a halfe within the list thorough & by al the whole cloth at ẏ least. Item euery yard of cloth commonly called bandy warpe, being well scoured, thicked, milled, & fully dried, shal conteine the breedth specified in ẏ said act, & shal weigh two pounds & a halfe at the least. And for almuch, as many persons do counterfaite the making of Cocksall, Bocking, and Braine træ cloths, cõmonly called bandwarpes, adding thereunto such like list, as the makers of such cloths do, to ẏ great deceipt of the king & Quenes maiesties subiects. Be it therfore enacted, ẏ no person or persons from ẏ 1. day of May nert cõming, shall ad vnto any cloth or cloths, any such like list or lists, except the warpe therof be spone vpon the rocke or distaffe, vpon paine of forfaiture of ẏ same cloth or cloths, or ẏ very value therof. Prouided al wayes ẏ the cloth makers wtin the city of Worcester, may make such lists as they haue done heretofore. Itẽ ẏ no person or persons, inhabiting wtin the west riding, in ẏ coũty of Yorke, shal make or cause to be made, any broad cloth or cloths, called pewkes, tawnies, violets, or greenes, except ẏ wool therof before it be converted into yarne, be first died, litted, & coloured wt the colour blew, of the value of ij. s. a poũd, vpon pain of forfaiture of euery such coloured cloth, or the value thereof, where of

Item that euerie ordinarie kersey mencioned in ỹ said act, shal contein in length in ỹ water betwixt xvi. & xvij. yards, yard & ynch, & being wel scoured, thicked, milled, dressed, and fully dried, shal weigh xix. poundes the peece at the least. And euery kersey called sorting kersey, mencioned in ỹ said act, being wel scoured, thicked, milled, dressed, and fully dried, ready to be shewed, shal weigh two & twentie pounds at the least. Item that euery Deuonshire kersey, called dozens, the which is appointed by the same statut to weigh, being drie xiiij. poundes at the least, shal weigh, being well scoured, thicked, milled, & fully dried, after the rate of euery yard one pound at the least. Item ỹ one article mencioned in the said statute concerning welsh cottons, touching the length & weight, shalbe clerely void, and euery goad of Welsh lining, shal contein & be three quarters of a yard in bredth in the water, & shal weigh one pound and a halfe quarter, & euery yard of Cotton being fully wrought & cottoned, shal weygh one pound at the least. And be it further enacted, that no person or persons which shall buy to sell againe by way of retayle, or otherwise, any of ỹ said welsh linings, shal dresse or worke, or cause to be dressed or wrought within his or their dwellyng house or houses, or in any other place, by him selfe, or his seruant or seruants, any of the said welsh linings, but shall put the same to some such person or persons, as shalbe of the arte or science of sheremen, cottoners, or frisers, to be by thē wrought & dressed, vpon paine of forfeiture for euerie welsh cotten or lyning frised or cottoned to the contrarie vi.s. viij.d. (See some addicion to this Article after 63.) Item that al and euery cotton or cottons, called Manchester, Lancashire, & Chelshire cottons, & al clothes called Manchester rugs, or Manchester frises, may be deuided into two halfe peeces, & shal contein & be after the rate of such bredth & weight, as in the said act is limitted & appointed to a whole peece of euery of the seuerall peeces of cottons and Rugges aforesaid, any thing in the said former statute to the contrarie in any wyse notwithstanding. And if any cloth or kersey, of the seuerall kinds of makings, mencioned in the said former acte or this estatut, do exceede ỹ seuerall legths mencioned in the same, that then euerie yard so exceeding, shall weigh after such rate as euery yard of such cloth or kerseis conteining the said seuerall lengthes, shal or ought to weigh, vpon paine of forfayture for euery parde not weighing after such rate v. s. And if any such clothe or kersey shall lacke of suche weight, as by the said statute, or this act it ought, & is appointed to haue, then the maker ther of, or other person in whose hands or possessions the same be found, shal forfait for euery pound lacking aboue iiij. pond, v. s. and also for euery pound exceeding not aboue fower pounds, ij.s. in maner and forme as in the said former act is appointed. Item one article mencioned in ỹ said statut, wherein the Aulneger is prohibyted to set his seale to any cloth or kersey which shal proue pursy, baudy, squally, in or by, warpe or wooke, or els shall happen to be euill burled, or wasted in the mill, or otherwise to be full of holes, milbracks, or to be holy, shalbe void & of none effect. Item it is enacted, that if at any time after the first day of May, any cloth or kersey thorough the default or negligence of the carders, spinners, or weauers, or any of them, shall or doe proue, either pursey, cockly, baudy, squally, or rowy, by warpe or wooke, or els shal happen to be euil burled, or wasted, in ỹ mil, or els thorough the default or negligence of the mill man, or otherwise to be ful of holes, milbracks, or to be holy, that then the maker of euery such cloth or kersey so beeing defective or faultie, as is aforesaid, shal fire vnto euery end of ỹ said cloth or kersy so being defective & faultie, & offered to be sold, one seale of lead, in the which seale shalbe ingraued this word (faultie) vpon paine of forfayture of such cloth or kersey, or the value thereof so offred to be solde, where vnto such seale shal not bee set. Item the Article mencioned in the said former acte of returning of defective cloths, kerseis, frises, or cottons, being transported ouer the seas by the marchāts, shalbe vtterly void. 2 ¶ Edward by the grace of God &c. to our Treaſorer & Barons of the Eſchequer greeting. To thintent that prouiſion may be had for the indempnitie of vs and our people in certaine caſes, touching vs and our people afozeſaid, in our ſaid court of Eſchequer: wee wil & pzouide, ỳ from henceforth the bodies of ſhires ſhal not be writtẽ in ſeueral rols, but ſhalbe writtẽ in a certain roll annual, & ſhalbe read euery yere vpon the ſeueral accompts of ſhirifes, ỳ is to wit, in the ſeueral countyes, that it may be knowen, if ought may eſcheat vnto vs by any maner meane. The remanents of the ſame ſhires ſhalbe writen by later dates in the annual rolls, & the ſherifes ſhalbe charged there with, in which remanents the liueries and almes ozdinarie are allowed, & other allowãces (if ſherifes haue had any) of the iſſues of their bailiwykes by our writts of diuers allowances vnto our greuous dammage: We wil & pzouide, that of ſuch maner allowances ſo to be made, from henceforth view ſhalbe made in our Eſchequer, and the ſame vyew being faithfully made, the ſame Treaſozer & barons ſhal certifie the Chauncelloz of the ſaid allowances ſo to be made, & that writs of allowances ſhal be made, accozding to the ſame certificat. Mozeouer there ſhalbe writtẽ in ỳ ſame annual rolls, the fermes of the ſherifes, the pzofits of counties, the fermes of ſertaunts and aſſertes, the fermes of Cities, Bozoughes, and townes, and other fermes, whereof there is aunſwere made yerely in the Eſchequer. And in them alſo ſhalbe writtẽ all debts determined, & al groſſe debts, whereof is hope that ſome what ſhalbe paied againe. Item al debts that ſeeme to be clere, when it is commen vnto accompt, oz to the title of new obligations. Nothing ſhalbe writtẽ in the annual rolle, but thoſe debts whereof there is hope of payment, & whereof the ſherife is aunſwerable, & debts that ſeeme clere in the originals. Of dead fermes, & debts deſperate, one roll ſhalbe made, & ſhalbee inrolled & read euery yere vpon ỳ accõpts of ſherifes, and the debts whereof the ſherife is aunſwerable, ſhalbe writtẽ in the annual roll, and there ſhalbee acquyted. Mozeouer we wil & pzouide, that it ſhalbe pzoclaymed in euery county, that all they that haue Tailes of the Eſchequer foz the debts of them ſelues, & their auncеſters hytherto paied vſually there, and not yet allowed, whereof ſhall come in the ſummons of the Eſchequer, that ſuch tayles ſhalbe deliuered to their Sherifes, to bee allowed at the Eſchequer at theyr accompts. And the Sherifes ſhal make to thẽ (of whom they ſhal ſo receiue tailes) their writtinges, witneſſing the receipt of thoſe tailes. Two faythfull knights deputed thereunto, betwene whom and the ſaid Sherifes indentures ſhalbe made of ſuch receipts, with the ſeales of them both interchangeably, the foreſaid knights deputed thereunto, ſhal ſend ỳ parts of their indentures, at the terme appointed vnto the Eſchequer in fourme afozeſaid, to the end that by the view and witnes of them the ſaid tailes ſo receiued by the Sherifes may be ſhewed, & be allowed vpon their accompts. Mozeouer it ſhalbe pzoclaimed that except thoſe that haue ſuch tailes doe ſhew them to the ſherifes and knights to be executed as afoze is ſaid, that they ſhall be diſtrained foz the whole debt, and the tayles to be reputed foz vnpaied. Mozeouer the debts, which yet are to come in the ſummons of the Eſchequer, whereof the debtours do pzofer tayles againſt diuers ſherifes, ſhalbe defaulted & acquited. Mozeouer we pzouide, that certaine perſons aſſigned thereunto on our behalfe, ſhalbee ſent into euery ſhire, which ſhall haue full power to enquire of ſuch maner debts, and alſo to call afoze them ſolemply, as well the ſherifes as their heires and aſſignes, and the tenants of their landes, in caſe they be dead that haue receiued the debts, & alſo if neede be to pzocẽde to the taking of ſuch maner inqueſts, whether ỳ parties (againſt whom the foreſaid tailes were ſhewed) do come oz not, ſo that the ſherife do returne a reaſonable ſummons made to them therfoze, & ſo the trouth being inquired & diſcuſſed in pzeſence of the parties (if they will be there) ỳ inquiſitoz ſhal make rolls of them that ſhalbe conuict afoze them, ſo that the foreſaid debts being confeſſed & inrolled, the tayles of ỳ ſame ſhalbe foꝛth wt broken. And the ſherifs ſhal haue in their cuſtody ỳ trãſcripts of the ſame rols, vnder ỳ ſeals of ỳ inquiſtoz, & ſhal ſurceaſe in making diſtreſſes foz the debts conteined in ỳ ſame, vntil they ſhal haue other wiſe in cõmãdment from vs therfoze. And there shalbe entred in the same estret, ẏ names of all those which that yere shalbe assygned to heare and enquire of, or to do, any thing where by fine or amerciament, or other profit appertaining to ẏ king might percase, or ought to aryse, so that thereby, commaundement may be sent to send by the estreats of the same. And in the ende of the estreat, the redisseisins & surcharging of pastures, as before hath ben. Because that Justices, Inquirors, and others which are assigned to diuers businesse to heare & determine, ought yerely to deliuer into the Eschequer their estreats of fines and amerciaments, made & tared before them, and of all other things happenyng by meanes of those businesse, whych to ẏ king doth appertain, so that he may of the same be duely answered. And oft times it happeneth that diuers of those estreats be kept backe so long before they be deliuered into the Eschequer, that the kinge hath by meanes thereof great losse and dammage. Item charge & cõmãdement be geuen to the Clerke of the market, & of measures, that he deliuer his estreats for so much as appertaineth to hys office in the fourme above said. And the warden of the Aulnage, shal deliuer yerely to the Treasorer of the Eschequer, the estreats of his office, wherein shalbe contained al the defaultes which he hath found of clothes throughout the Realme, and al so where and when, & to whom the cloths did appertaine, which he found contrarie to the assise, & the price, & to whom he hath deliuered them, where and when, and by what warrant. Also the Butler for the king for the time being be charged, that al the wines which he shall prouide for the kings vse, either by him selfe or by his attorneis, in what place so euer it shal happen to be, that he shal make the same prouision by the view of the honestest men in the towne, where the same purueyance shal happen to be, so that alwaies ẏ same purueyance may bee witnessed by the voice of two of the best of the same place. And if it happe that the same be in a port where are gatherers of ẏ kings custome, then the same shalbee testified by them. And no Customer from hence forth shal be deputie to the butler, so long as he shall be attendant vpon the Custome. And the Butler which for the time shalbe, eyther by him selfe, or by his deputie, shal put in to a rolle, all his bayinges in this maner, (that is to say) how many Tunnes, of whom he bought them, at what time, & by whose view, & he shal enrol the wines of prisage, in like manner how many Tunnes, the testimony of the persons, of whom the price was had, where & when. ¶Fees.

COncerning the kings marshals of fee chamberlaines, porters in the circuit, of Justices and sergeants, bearing vierge before Justices at Westminster, which haue the same office in fee, and that alike more by reason of their fee, then they haue vsed to aske, whereuppon many do complaine on them, that haue knowen & seene the order of the court of longe time. Our soueraigne Lord the kinge hath caused to be enquired by an enquest, what the sayde officers of fee haue vsed to haue in tymes paste, and hath ordeined and cõmaunded, that a marshal of fee, which of new asketh a palfraie of Earles, Barons, & other holding by a part of barony, when they haue done homage, and neuertheleſſe an other palfraie whẽ they are made knights, & of some that ought not to geeue any, aske a palfrie: It is in like maner ordeyned, ẏ the sayd marshal of euery Earle and baron, holding by an entire baronie, shalbee cõtented with one palfraie, or with the price of it, such as hee hath vsed to haue of old: so that yf he take a palferay, or the price of one, at the doing of his homag in forme aforesaid, he shal take nothing whẽ he is made knight: & if he take nothing at ẏ doing of his homage, when he is made knight he shal take. Of abbottes priours holding an whole barony, when they do homage or fealtie, for their baronyes, he shal take one palfraie, or ẏ price, as afore is sayd, and this shal also bee obserued amongest archbishops and bishops, of such as hold but a part of a baronie, whether they be religious or seculer, hee shall take according to the porcion of the part of the baronie ẏ they holde. Of religious men ẏ hold in free almes, & not by a barony, nor part of a barony, ẏ Marshal frõ henceforth shal demaũd nothing. And our soueraigne lord ẏ king hath grãted ẏ by this statut a Marshal of fee, shal not be barred hereafter to demaũd more, if he can shew ẏ he hath right vnto more. The kings chãberlains from henceforth shal haue of archbishops, Bishops, Abbotes, Priours, & other persons spiritual, of Earles and Barons holding an entier barony, a reasonable fine, whẽ they do their homage or fealtie. And if they holde by a part of a baronye, they shal take a reasonable fine according to ẏ porcion to them belonging. Other abbots Priours, persons spirituall and temporal ẏ hold no entier barony, nor part of a barony, shal not be distrained to make fine, as it is sayd by them ẏ hold by a barony, or part of barony, but the chamberlayne shalbe contented with his vpper garment or with the price thereof, which is done in fauour of personnes religions, more then of lay personnes, for it is more conuenyent, that religyous men should fine for their vpper garment, then to be strayned West. 2. cap. 42.
